P.S.

Mr. Hurst, chairman of our parks board, is also interested in finding out what he can about Philip Zwick for a plaque to be erected on Zwick's Island. Before any historical inaccuracies are enshrined in bronze, I thought it wise to check with you. The name, as you probably know is also sometimes spelt "Swick" and "Sweet".

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

I have been writing a series of articles for the Ontario Intelligencer on historic old Belleville houses. I have had some trouble with two old names, Yeomans and Zwicks, and wondered if you could help me.

Although "Pioneers of the Bay of Quinte" claims Philip Zwick was a U.E.L., I am beginning to believe their story is pure romance. Zwick did not buy the lot that includes his island until 1817, although there is reason to believe he was in the district by 1795, at least. Could you tell me if he is on the U.E.L. list, and if so whether he held the rank of Captain?

The Asa Yeomans family are not thought to be U.E.L. but since a Jacob or John Yeomans appears among the early settlers I wondered if perhaps he was a U.E.L. and father of our Asa?

Neither family seems to have petitioned for grants as a Loyalist or a settler. I presumed both families came from the U.S., and wondered if your records would include anything we have missed. We have used Canniff, the Bell Papers, and the Ontario Archives Reports in our research.

Thank you for your help.

Yours truly,

Kenny Williamson
